

Agnes Etherington ART CENTRE

CASTING CALL

A Performance by First Nations Artist Terrance Houle

Saturday 20 October, 2007, 2 to 5 pm and 7 to 8 pm
Presented in the Art Centre atrium

Terrance Houle's
CASTING NOTICE FOR FIRST NATIONS (Native American or Native)
MEN AND WOMEN

Artist Terrance Houle's Casting Call is a new low-budget production being filmed in Kingston, Ontario. Auditions will be held by the artist.

Open casting call for First Nations, Native American, Métis, Half-breed, Quarter, Indian Princesses and Princes, Powwow Dancers, Powwow Drummers, 1/8th, Rez, City Indians, Aborigines, Status, Non-Status, Red Indian people between 15 and 100, both male and female.

Acting experience a plus, but not necessary.

- Traditional, contemporary, bannock experience, Native war veterans, horse riding experience, an interest in bingo, war paint, Indian car, regalia, black wigs are all assets but not necessary
- Any size and shape will be acceptable. We are looking for fit, big, small, tall, hunky, beautiful, ugly, etc.
- Braided hair, long black or short will be acceptable
- Love of nature, animals and outdoors is a must
- Deep respect for Mother Earth
- Must know the Four Directions
- Owners of buckskin loin cloth, breach cloth and general hides a bonus
- Fluent in Native language and English

We are looking for Stony, Anishnabek, Blackfoot, Cree, Ojibway, Dene, Navajo, Haida, Salish, Sioux, Métis, Crow, Pawnee, Micmac, Mohawk, (etc.) or anyone of the like.

Must have experience as one of the above criteria

Auditions will be for roles of Natives playing Non-Natives acting in Native roles.